Divorce proceedings should be ended. Today that is not happening," a bench of Justices P D Kode and I S Bobde said.The division bench passed the remark while considering a PIL filed by a couple seeking that divorce be granted as none of the earlier orders passed by the trial court allowed them to go ahead with the proceedings. The couple, represented by advocate Ashim More, filed a complaint at the family court seeking divorce on grounds of cruelty and desertion.The bench said that if the parent fails to respond to the notice of the other party, that does not prove marital infidelity. It added that the instant petition does not prove that the husband has committed adultery.Regarding some earlier orders of the family court, the bench said the matter needs to be viewed in the light of the family laws in force. It said it will make an order once all judgements are final.The bench issued notice to the parties. However, it could not fix the date of the final hearing on grounds that the parties did not reply to the notice and it could not fix the date on account of lack of prima facie jurisdiction.Shun Hao (actor) Shun Hao (born August 3, 1988) is a Chinese actor and model.
