although the person may be aware of the facts, but if he is not convinced that the facts are true, it is not necessary to recite the durood. for example, one may be a staunch ahmadi and even accept that some facts are true. but the person may still not accept the facts. in such a case, it is not necessary for him to recite the durood. then it is advisable for the person to recite the durood and if that is not enough, he should recite as many durood as he can, but if he still does not get the message, then it is better to recite some other durood. it is said in another way that, at every instant, a person is prayed to by allah taala. if his pray is answered, it is a great favour, but if not, it is a great displeasure. once he asked the holy prophet (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam): how can the muslim expect the favour of allah taala, if he does not perform the obligatory salaah (prayers)? he (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) replied: o! ibrahim! i wish for you that you would not forget what i have enjoined on you. when you recite durood-e-tunajjina, you will be in my way and in my favour. i say this to you with certainty, my lord! thus, every durood shareef is an intercession, a supplication, a plea, a prayer, and an invocation for the fulfillment of the favour of allah taala. to recite durood-e-tunajjina has the same effect as to pray five times a day for the fulfillment of the favour of allah taala. it can be said that durood-e-tunajjina is a dua (supplication) of the one who is the most deserving of the favour of allah taala. it is a very valuable dua. to recite it is to fulfill the obligation of one's every supplication. 5ec8ef588b
